

Daily Bible Reading Journal

for the week of _____ to _____, 20____

Memory Verse: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Date: _____ Passage(s): _____

God's message to me: _____

My response in prayer: _____

Suggestions for use: (1) Establish a quiet place and a time in which you can meet with God daily. (2) Always pray before reading the Scriptures, and ask God to teach you about Himself and His will for your life. (3) Read all the way through a book of the Bible, rather than randomly from passage to passage. An easy pattern to follow is to read two or three chapters from the Old Testament and one from the New Testament from the beginning to the end. By following this pattern you'll read all the way through the Bible in a little over a year. (4) Record just one main thought or principle you believe God is teaching you from that day's reading of the Scriptures. (5) Record your response to that thought or principle in the form of a prayer. (6) If a particular verse stands out in your study that you feel God would have you commit to memory, write it in the space at the top left-hand corner of the sheet, and review it each day of the week.